

THE BATTLE FOR HARDT

ASL SCENARIO KCO 2

WEST OF HARDT, GERMANY, February 28th, 1945 Company K, of the 84th Infantry Regiment, nicknamed the Railsplitters, along with Company L, was tasked with securing several towns along the way through Germany in the push after the Battle of the Bulge. One of those towns was Hardt. Unknown to the company, dug in against them was the 8th Fallschirmjaeger Division. Heavily armed and well placed, they gave quite the surprise to the Americans as they prepared to take the town.
